The consultation process has not allowed for the effective engagement with Communities, that have been identified by DDDC as sustainable. There have been no discussions with residents of Tansley related to the impact of additional development upon the settlement.
There has been no discussion with residents related to the sustainability of the SHLAA sites, no choice in site location. The local authority are unable to tell residents what additional facilities and infra structure will be provided to mitigate the effect of an additional 100 homes upon the village. Contrary to NPPF 155, which states early engagement and collaboration with neighbourhoods is essential,
